

ACCEPTABLE INTERNET USE POLICY

1. Delcom's system may not be used for any activity, which may violate any criminal or civil laws. These include any activities involving drugs, gambling, prostitution, pornography, spreading computer viruses, cracking computer security systems, infringing on intellectual property, trafficking in credit card numbers, fraudulent marketing schemes, or trafficking in cellular telephone fraud information.
2. The system may not be used to distribute mass unsolicited E-mail containing commercial advertisements or to post commercial advertisements to inappropriate locations on the Internet.
3. The system may not be used to publish defamatory statements directed to or about other persons or entities on the Internet.
4. Customers must respect the conventions and rules of news groups, mailing lists, and other networks, even if those conventions and rules are more restrictive than ours are.
5. The system may not be used to violate the copyright interests or other intellectual property interests of any person or entity. This includes, but is not limited to the distribution or sharing of copyrighted software in violation of the copyright holders' rights.
6. You assume all responsibility for the security of passwords, user names, files and accounts assigned to you.
